THe Officers of this Second Troop were very richly Habited and Equipped, in like manner as were thoſe of the Firſt Troop, from whom they differ'd only in the Colour of their Houſſes and Holſter Caps, which were of GREEN Velvet; and in the garniſhing of the Manes, Cruppers and Tails of their Horſes, which was with GREEN Taffata Ribbands, whereas the Diſtinguiſhing Colour of the Firſt Troop was BLEW.

The

The Gentlemen of this Troop, were alſo 200 in Number, all new Cloathed, Armed and Equipped in like manner as were the Firſt Troop, differing only from them in the Lace of their Hats, of their Sleeve-Facings, and their Carabine Belts, all which was Gold edged with Silver, and in the Colour of their Ribbands in their Hats and Horſes Heads, which were GREEN, as were alſo their Houſſes and Holſter-Caps, and Carabine Belts; only the Kings Cipher on the ſaid Houſſes and Holſter-Caps was within a Border of the Royal Badges.

Their CORNET of White Damask doubled, being Two Foot Six Inches flying, and as much in depth upon the Staff, was Fringed about with Gold Three Inches deep, with Strings and Taſſels ſuitable; and in the middle was Imbroidered the Kings Cipher, Enſigned with an Imperial Crown of Gold ſuſteined by Two Angels of Silver, That on the Right Side having a Sword in his Hand, and That on the Left a Palm Branch: Under the Cipher was the Year of our Lord 1685. wrought in Figures of Gold; and below the ſaid Figures a Scroll of Gold with the Words DIEU ET MON DROIT, in Black Silk, and under the Scroll were Imbroidered three leſſer Imperial Crowns, alſo of Gold.

The GUYDON was of the ſame Silk, made up and Imbroidered as the Cornet, differing from it only in Form, having a Forked Tail, which, from the Staff to the Points thereof, was about Three Foot and Three Inches.

This Second Troop of His Majeſties Horſe-Guards drew up at their uſual place of Parade in the Hay-Market; from whence marching by St. James's Stables, croſs the Park into Petty-France, and down Tothil-Street, they paſſed through the Gatehouſe into the Great Sanctuary, and were drawn up three deep to the Rail, and there Poſted facing the Weſt-end and North-Weſt Angle of the Abbey-Church in Weſtminſter, being Commanded by the Eldeſt Lieutenant-Colonel, by reaſon that his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Colonel of the ſaid Troop, did immediately follow His MAJESTIES Royal Perſon in the Proceeding, as Captain of the Horſe-Guards then in Waiting.

The 2d. Troop of His Majeſties Horſe-Granadiers.

Captain Richard Potter,
Captain Robert Dixon, } Lieutenants.

John Douglas,
Henry Morgan, } Sergeants.

Nicholas Prettey,
William Hume, } Corporals.

THe Officers of this Second Troop of Horſe-Granadiers were richly Habited, and ſuitable, in the Colour of their Houſſings and Holſter-Caps, (which were of Green Velvet, and in their Ribbands of Green Taffaty) to the Officers of the Second Troop of Horſe-Guards; being alſo excellently well Mounted and Equipped.

The Granadiers alſo (Sixty in Number) were Cloathed, Armed and Accoutred in all reſpects anſwerable to the Firſt Troop of Horſe-Granadiers, but were differing from them in the Colour of their Houſſes, Holſter-Caps, Linings, Facings, and
